Abstract

Previous to 1930, Columbia House was not considered within the city limits and was difficult to track down on census records. Title deeds listed it in 1924 for $3000 (2024's equivalent to $54000). It was not included in city fire maps, as it was just outside the lines drawn for fire codes. Supposedly the house has been standing since 1914, but this can not be verified through Title Deeds, City Directories, and blueprints could not be found. The Tuckers were the first owners of this address and had four children and raised their nephews before the house foreclosed in 1935. It remained vacant for a year before Stanley and Naomi Roeder lived there. Stanley served in the armed forces, they had now known children, but witnessed several late night weddings. In 1940 the Rapers resided at Columbia House, having met the previous decade boarding together. Unfortunately, Mr. Raper was caught committing adultery and Mrs. Raper won the house and all belongings as noted in the Title Deed. In 1946, The Headlees bought Columbia house and Walter moved in with his wife, children, and mother-in-law. From this point on until 2001, Columbia House passed on through four generations. Walter's son lived there for two years and then his daughter Dorothy and her husband Raymond Dewitt took over in 1975 and their children took it over after them through the 2000s.

4. Tucker Family (1926-1935)

In 1913 Maude Buzzard almost drowned with a friend in a lake. In 1920 she did an advertisement for a "Dr. Pierce Favourite Prescription". Ezra Tucker was from Kentucky and Maude came from Fayette Co. IL. They moved to Champaign in 1924 with their children Helen, Jessie, Claude, and Paul. By 1935 they had fallen into foreclosure on the house.

8. Roeder Family (1938)

Mr. Stanley Roeder was born in Brooklyn, NY and served in the military around the country. Naomi lived and worked in Champaign, often with her mother, Eleanore. He married Naomi in 1931 and they resided in Champaign until 1947 when they moved to Louisiana. They had no children together. Stanley Roeder, Naomi, and her sister Viola Reynolds actually served as witnesses in a few courthouse weddings.

11. Phillip Family (1939-1940)

12. Raper Family (1940-1945)

Richard Raper was born in 1893 in Indiana to Ransom Wallace and Lena Raper. In his 1919 Draft Card he is listed as residing in Urbana, IL. He married Ida Guthrie in 1930. Ida Guthrie was a cook for various industries around town. In 1940 they're recorded as living in this house with their son, Donald. Richard was a laborer for the university. In 1945, according to the house deeds, it appears that Mr. Raper committed adultery and Ida filed for divorce, becoming the sole owner of 1310 W. Columbia.

13. Headlee Family (1946-1971)

In 1946, the Champaign City Directory has Walter S Headlee residing here. He was married to Ruby I. and her mother, Martha (Belle) McNeeley lived here as well. They lived here from 1946 until 1971 according to Census records and City Directories. Walter worked as a painter and upholsterer. In the basement, over 30 glass bottles for tablets, capsules, and tonics to a Mrs. W. P. McNeely, prescribed by Dr. Christie - of Christie Clinic. In 1920 they lived with their daughter in Willow Branch Twsp IL. Their daughter, Dorothy married Raymond in 1930 and they had a son and daughter named Thomas and Peggy Dewitt.

17. Dewitt (1972-1974)

NORMAL STUDENTS IN ACCIDENT

—Armer Pitman, of Bridgeport, Ill., and Miss Maude Buzzard, of Sumner, Ill., narrowly escaped being the principals in a double drowning accident Wednesday at Miller park when, in attempting to change seats in a boat in which they were rowing, the boat overturned, throwing them both into the deepest part of the new lake. But for Pitman's presence of mind and action by others who were rowing nearby the story might have been of two deaths by drowning. The young people are summer school students at Normal.

How Accident Happened.

Pitman and Miss Buzzard were rowing in a steel boat having in the bottom air chambers. It is nearly impossible to sink one of these boats, and even when it is filled with water it will support five people in the water. They were just to the south of the bridge between the two lakes when they decided to change seats.

As they were passing each other the boat tipped, filled with water, and the young people were thrown into the lake. Pitman held the boat with one hand and held Miss Buzzard about the waist with the other. Just at this point Mr. Leslie Stone and Miss Mary Ubrich, who were rowing near by, assisted in the rescuing work, taking Pitman into their boat, while Miss Buzzard was picked up by people in another boat.

50 Years Ago

A young man who practiced medicine in a rural district became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce who afterward moved to Buffalo, N. Y. He made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public, and he put up what he called his "Favorite Prescription," and placed it with the druggists in every state in the Union.

For fifty years Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has sold more largely throughout the United States than any other medicine of like character. It's the testimony of thousands of women that it has benefited or entirely eradicated such distressing ailments as women are prone to. It is now sold by druggists in tablet form as well as liquid.

WEST UNION, ILL.—"Dr. Pierce has my heart's best thanks for what his 'Favorite Prescription' has done for me. I shall always recommend this medicine. Since using it I am much improved in health. I do not have that 'draggy' feeling I had before."—MISS MAUDE BLIZZARD, Route 3.

Irate Father On Trail Of Young Newlywedded Pair

George William Weaver, an airplane mechanic living in Champaign, who claimed to be 21, and Miss Clairdeil Parmelia Murphy of Rantoul, claiming to be 18, were married at 5 o'clock last evening by Justice of the Peace J. J. Reynolds, in his office on Broadway. Viola Reynolds and Stanley Roeder witnessed the ceremony.

The bridegroom remarked after the ceremony that he anticipated trouble when the bride's father learned of the wedding and this proved a good guess.

Fa Arthur C. Murphy was in his rage when he called on Justice Reynolds this morning and left the office declaring intention to start suit to have the marriage annulled. He said that neither Weaver nor his daughter is of age.

The bridegroom is a son of George C. Weaver of Champaign.
